CLOTHING OUR KIDS (COK) UPDATE – JUNE 5

DELAWARE TECHNICAL COMMUNITY COLLEGE HOSTS CLOTHING DRIVE

CONTACT: kblouin@clothingourkids.com; 302-864-KIDS (5437)

Georgetown's own Delaware Technical Community College (CC) recently hosted a Clothing drive to benefit Clothing Our Kids. COK Volunteer Lisa Conley collaborated with Del Tech's Instructional Coordinator Holly Hermstedt about the need for proper school clothing for Sussex County kids in need, particularly in adult sizes. Holly and her staff answered the call!

Throughout the month of April, shirts, pants, jeans, shoes, and many personal hygiene items were collected and delivered to the COK Volunteer Center by Lisa Conley. Middle and High School students will benefit from the generous assortment of donations and the added bonus of personal toiletries.

COK and our kids are extremely grateful to Holly and her team at Delaware Technical Community College for supporting the kids with this Clothing Drive and a shout out to Lisa for her efforts in initiating this partnership! COK is blessed to have Volunteers proactively reaching out to friends, neighbors and colleagues to support our kids.
